

Occasional Hunters & Sportsman:

Any person may own a maximum of four weapons as an occasional hunter/sportsman.

Similarly you will need to motivate by way of trophies, hunting bookings or letters from farmers or game farm owners.

Should you use one firearm for self-defense you may own only three additional hunting/sporting weapons.

Sporting weapons, especially additional handguns, will require proof of membership of a club.

You can only own a total of one handgun for occasional sport.
